

Clergy Orientation Flight

In an effort to educate clergy about the Wisconsin Air National Guard, the 128th Air Refueling Wing invites clergy on a training flight aboard the KC-135R “Stratotanker”. Guests will witness an in-flight refueling to learn more about the Air Guard mission.

Guardsmen may invite one clergy member, and are encouraged to accompany their guest on the flight. Participants will receive the schedule and reporting instructions by email one week prior to flight.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: Clergy must be an ordained minister or priest. Please only nominate your clergy if they have never flown with the 128 ARW on an orientation flight. Applicant full name and date of birth are required to perform a background check prior to base access.
